

Press Release – Jamie Hulley Arts Foundation's Evening for the Arts Gala Features Jay Stollman & the Black Rock All-Stars

Jay Stollman & the Black Rock All-Stars are reuniting to headline Jamie Hulley Arts Foundation's 23rd Annual Evening for the Arts Gala on Saturday, September 6, 2025, at Fairfield University's Regina A. Quick Center for the Arts.

The Evening for the Arts reception and raffle preview begins at 6:30 p.m. Light refreshments will be available. The performance begins at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $50 in advance, or $60 at the door and may be purchased through the Quick Center Box Office: (203) 254-4010, and online at quickcenter.fairfield.edu/box-office

Experience the energy, excitement, and electrifying beat of Fairfield County's "original" Funk-Jam Band back together again for one night only with a set list overflowing with Classic Soul and R&B hits! Veteran performer & recording artist Jay Stollman has performed worldwide with musical legends such as The Rascals, James Brown, Elton John, The Temptations, The Four Tops, Peter Frampton, Blues Traveler, Jose Feliciano, Joan Jett, & Diana Ross, to name a few. This reunion concert is a joy-filled journey back in time to the All-Stars legendary performances featuring the hits of James Brown, Aretha Franklin, Stevie Wonder, Marvin Gaye, Wilson Pickett, Tower of Power and so many more!

The event benefits the Jamie Hulley Arts Foundation, a non-profit organization dedicated to the educational enrichment and professional development of young artists and early career professionals. The foundation was founded to celebrate the life of Jamie Alaine Hulley. All proceeds from the Gala are dedicated to scholarships, educational programs and community project sponsorships throughout Connecticut, especially in the greater New Haven and Fairfield counties. Since the foundation's creation in 2002, over $1 million has been awarded, impacting the lives of thousands of area youth each year.
