

Trustworthy • Free • 24/7 • From your school or public library or from home!

Searchasaurus

For: Elementary School students

A colorful, animated interface for primary students to develop basic searches. With Lexile (reading level) limiters.

Primary Search

For: Elementary School students

Articles and curriculum-related materials selected for elementary schools.

Kids Search

For: Elementary and Middle School students

Articles and curriculum-related materials selected for grades 3-8.

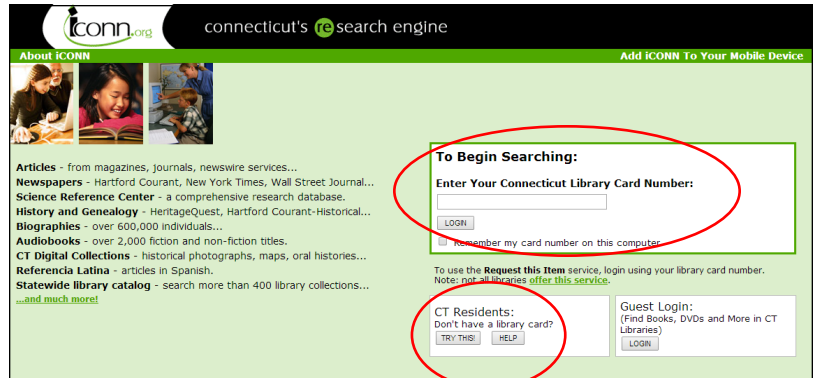

Middle Search Plus

For: Middle School students

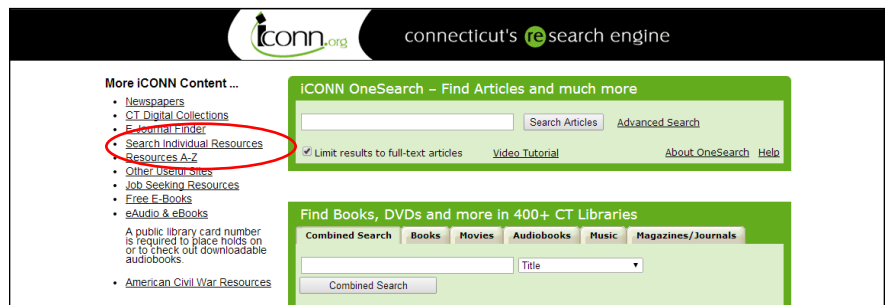

Articles and curriculum-related materials selected for grades 6-8.

Have a research project? Need some information for your school assignment? Online databases give you access to articles from magazines, newspapers and reference books; electronic encyclopedias; and even e-books. Visit iConn.org to use the databases listed above.

If you see this screen at home, you will need to verify that you are in CT. Enter your public library card number or use the Try This! button.

On the left, click Search Individual Resources

Scroll to the bottom and on the right, look under Resources for K-12 Learning

